Join the Chancellor’s Office during National Hunger & Homelessness Awareness Week (November 15-22, 2020) as it hosts a virtual panel discussion to highlight the research that has influenced the ways the CSU helps students meet their basic needs. Panelists will also highlight the innovative programs and services that support student success across the 23 campuses.

PANELISTS

Dr. Lea M. Jarnagin, interim systemwide director of Student Wellness and Basic Needs Initiatives
Dr. Rashida Crutchfield, associate professor at Cal State Long Beach
Dr. Jennifer Maguire, associate professor at Humboldt State
Michael Taylor, graduate student at Stanislaus State
